

Visit to the Eco-House

The Archimedia Group were invited by Bristol City Council's Sustainable City team to a private tour of the Eco House at Bristol's CREATE Centre. We were looking at sustainability and how we could make the new Media Centre as environmentally friendly as possible. The visit really gave us a lot to think about, including how environmentally friendly we are in our everyday lives and how we can put into practice some of the things we were shown .

