

London Architecture Walk

In December 2004, the Archimedia Group travelled to London to look at some of the architecture on London's South Bank. With the help of Bristol Architecture Centre and in conjunction with London Open House, the CoreGroup visited Big Ben, the London Eye, the National Theatre, the Gerkin and London City Hall. The group also spent time in the newly refurbished Treasury Offices as guests of Bristol MP Dawn Primorolo.

