

Michael Smith The Death of Leinster House

Archimedia works with some young people on an individual basis. Michael Smith, who has already helped to make a film that was shown on Channel 4, is working on an animated film called 'The Death of Leinster House'.

"This film is one way or another a horror film. It will be as scary and chilling as possible and probably one of Archimedia's greatest films" Michael Smith

